EARTH DAY AND LEGISLATIVE ACTION ON CLIMATE CHANGE

Earth Day is celebrated on April 21st in Denver this year. Protecting our planet is necessary now more than ever. Greenhouse gas emissions are affecting almost all its life forms, mostly in negative ways. Earth Day and three pieces of legislation introduced this year are reminders of the need for all of us to take action.

Climate change has been studied for decades. The University of Colorado, the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration, the National Center for Atmospheric Research, National Renewable Energy Laboratory, the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, the Environmental Protection Agency, The National Ice Core Lab, and the U.S. Geological Survey have done the research. The 4th U.S. Govt. National Climate Assessment, the Intergovernmental Panel on Climate, and the United Nations Environment Programme all declare that humans have created a threat to our world. The U.S. Military also considers climate change a national security risk and have plans in place to prevent, mitigate, and prepare for the risks.

The National Lung Association, American Medical Association, American Academy of Pediatrics, National Institute of Health, World Health Organization and the Inter-American Court of Human Rights all consider climate change a threat to human life and wellness.

Three bills have been introduced in the Colorado General Assembly aimed at controlling the emission of greenhouse gases. None of these bills have bipartisan sponsorship, and none have yet received bipartisan support. They do, however, reflect steps required for decreasing greenhouse gases.

SB 64 Require 100% Renewable Energy by 2035 (Sen. Jones; Rep. Foote) (support) This bill would have updated the renewable energy standard to require that all electric utilities derive their electricity from 100% renewable energy by 2035. This bill was PI'd in the Senate Agriculture, Natural Resources, and Energy Committee. (For more information on this bill, see LL#1, p. 8 and LL#2, p. 7.)

HB 1274 Reduce Greenhouse Gas Emissions by 2050 (Reps. K. Becker, Bridges; Sen. Kerr) (support in part) This bill would require Colorado to lower its greenhouse gas emissions 80% below 2005 levels by 2050. (Interestingly, Colorado already has reduced its greenhouse gas emissions by 5% below 2005 levels.) Colorado already has counties, cities, towns committed to lowering their emissions even lower and sooner. California, Hawaii, Oregon and New York also set lower emission reduction goals. The emission goals must not undermine the work being done here and elsewhere. According to a Greenberg Quinlan Rosner Research Survey, 68% of Coloradans support a 100% clean energy transition by 2030. This indicates general support for cleaner energy and fewer greenhouse emissions.

The bill was heard in the House Transportation and Energy Committee on March 21. It passed on an 8-5 vote. It was referred unamended to the House Committee of the Whole on March 26 where it awaits Second Reading. For more information on this bill, see LL#5, p. 5.

NEW HB 1297 Climate Change Preparedness and Resiliency (Reps. Winter & Pettersen; Sen. Donovan) (support in part) The bill generally legislates the goals announced by Governor Hickenlooper in an Executive Order in 2017. The Colorado Resiliency and Recovery Office in the Department of Local Affairs is required to, on an ongoing basis:

- Collect and analyze data regarding the economic and environmental impacts of not addressing climate change;
- Develop a model to estimate the future impacts of climate change on Colorado;
- Analyze the results of the modeling on regional and Colorado-specific climatic conditions currently and expected future conditions under a variety of climate change scenarios;
- Update the Colorado resiliency framework, taking into account the goals, rules, data and analysis; and
- Develop tools and resources to support locally led climate resilience initiatives.

League supports climate change preparedness and resiliency. There are many ways to accomplish this. We would like to see the level of emissions set lower than the bill proposes. The collection of data, analysis, modeling, updating, the use of tools to assist local resilience initiatives will be far-reaching in the state and is supported.

The bill was heard on March 21 in the House Transportation and Energy Committee. It was passed on an 8-5 vote and assigned to the House Appropriations Committee.

The Colorado League will participate in Earth Day again this year by registering voters at this year's observance in Civic Center Park from 9 a.m. until 4 p.m. on April 21st. Drop by and visit our table, even if you are already registered to vote.

GOVERNMENT

FISCAL POLICY

THE LONG BILL DEBUTS

NEW HB 1322 2018-19 Long Appropriations Act (Rep. Hamner; Sen. Lambert) (watch) was introduced in the House on March 26, along with the “orbit” bills (HB 1323 through HB 1340) to comprise the $28.9 billion state budget package. Some of the key areas receiving significant funding include transportation, PERA, K-12 education and the Department of Higher Education. HB 1322 was subject to several hours of debate on Wednesday as the House considered 95 amendments, the majority of which failed. The bill passed 3rd Reading on Thursday on a vote of 42-22 with 1 excused. In addition, all the orbit bills passed 3rd Reading with the exception of HB 1335 County Child Care Assistance Program Block Grants, which is still pending before House Appropriations. HB 1322 now moves to the Senate for further debate.

PERMITLESS CONCEALED CARRY

SB 097 Concealed Handgun without a Permit (Sen. T. Neville; Rep. Van Winkle) (oppose) would have repealed the requirement for a permit to carry a loaded concealed weapon. It passed Third Reading in the Senate on March 8, 18-17. SB 097 was then defeated in House State, Veterans & Military Affairs Committee on March 21 6-3.

“MAKE MY DAY” IN BUSINESS ADVANCES

SB 185 Deadly Force Against Intruder at a Business (Sen. Smallwood; Rep. Van Winkle) (oppose) is identical to already defeated HB 1077. It was heard in Senate Judiciary Committee and passed by a 3-2 vote on March 19. On March 29, after heated debate including statistics demonstrating the overwhelming number of black males being killed in states with a similar bill with killers given immunity, SB 185 was passed on Third Reading 19-16.

OUTLAW BUMP STOCKS

SB 51 Prohibit Multi-burst Trigger Activators (Sen. Merrifield; None) (support) would amend the definition of “dangerous weapon” to include a “multi-burst trigger activator” and a “manual or power-driven trigger-activating device”. When these devices are attached to a semiautomatic firearm, they significantly increase the rate of fire of that firearm. Testimonies, which were overwhelmingly in support, were given by two Las Vegas survivors, fathers of Columbine and Aurora Theater victims, a sister of a Sandy Hook victim, friends of Orlando nightclub victims, a Boulder County Sheriff, Colorado Ceasefire, CO Faith Communities United to End Gun Violence, Hunters for Gun Safety, the Student Movement, and multiple individual citizens of all ages. The few who opposed cited wording flaws in the bill, 2nd Amendment freedoms, and that these devices would help those who have disabilities pull the trigger.

On March 19, SB 51 was defeated by a vote of 3-2 in the Senate Veterans & Military Affairs Committee.

NO JAIL FOR BEING POOR

TRANSPORTATION

SB 001 Transportation & Infrastructure Funding (Sens. Baumgardner & Cooke; Rep. Buck) (watch) has made its way out of the Senate and is heading over to the House. The bill passed 3rd Reading on March 28 on a vote of 35-0. Amendments to the bill provide $500 million in general fund money to transportation projects and delays asking voters to approve a bond issuance until 2019. Delaying the bond question allows time to see if voters approve ballot initiatives brought by the business community that seek to raise new revenue for transportation projects through an increase in the sales tax, which are expected to appear on the ballot in November. SB 001 is awaiting introduction in the House.

VOTING RIGHTS

ACTION ON VOTE TRADING BILL DELAYED

SB 76 Ban Vote Trading (Sen. Lundberg; Rep. Melton) (watch) was scheduled for “action only” in the House State, Veterans, and Military Affairs Committee on March 22. It is now rescheduled for April 4.

Although the proposed amendments are not available for public view, Rep Melton reports that the amendments will change the penalty for vote trading from a misdemeanor to a petty offense, reducing the likelihood of jail time, and will change “trade a vote or offer to trade a vote” to text along the lines of “facilitate vote trading or offer to facilitate vote trading” in order to target vote-trading websites rather than individuals.

The Secretary of State’s office states that if Colorado voters were to use a vote trading website set up in another state, Colorado could penalize the website’s owner. The vote-trading discussion has focused on the US presidential election, but, as currently written, SB 76 affects vote trading between electors within Colorado as well as across state lines.

ETHICS AND TRANSPARENCY FOR THE PUC

NEW HB 1281 PUC Ethics and Improved Public Info Reporting (Rep. Esgar; None) (support) will strengthen the ethics standards for the Public Utilities Commission (PUC) commissioners by requiring them to divest of financial holdings in any PUC regulated entity in which they have active interest. A potential commissioner will not be eligible for appointment if he or she has served as an officer or director of any PUC regulated entity in the immediate preceding four years before appointment. In addition the bill requires the PUC Director to keep a record of PUC proceedings and to post recordings and other records online. And lastly, the bill provides for PUC employees to take training with agencies that undertake coordinated activities with the PUC such as the Colorado Energy Office and the Air Quality Control Commission.

HB 1281 will be heard in the House Transportation & Energy Committee on April 4.

TAX CREDIT REPEAL ADVANCES

SB 47 Repeal Tax Credits Innovative Vehicles (Sen. Marble; Rep. Saine) (oppose) The bill repeals tax credits for electric or hybrid vehicles and trucks as of January 2019 and diverts funds collected from credits to state and local transportation through the Highway Users Tax Fund. It also repeals a large truck emission impact study due this year. The bill passed Senate Appropriations on March 13 and was referred amended to the Committee of the Whole. The bill passed Senate Second Reading with amendments on March 21. It passed Third Reading on March 23, with a vote of 18-16-1 (Sen. Priola abstained due to a conflict of interest) vote. The bill was introduced in the House on March 27 and assigned to Transportation and Energy.

HB 1107 Prewire Residence for Electric Vehicle Charging Port (Rep. Weisman; Sen. Priola) (support) The bill required that a home builder offer the buyer the opportunity to have the electric system include either an electric vehicle charging system, an upgrade of wiring for future installation, or a constructed chase or conduit for future installation.

The bill was introduced in the Senate on Feb 21, assigned to the Senate Transportation Committee, and PI'd 3-2 on March 20th.

EXTENDING SERVICES FOR FORMER FOSTER CARE YOUTH

NEW HB 1319 Serv Successful Adulthood Former Foster Youth (Reps. Singer & Young) (support) allows county departments of human or social services to provide supportive services to foster youth between the ages of 18 and 21 who have exited the foster care system. It also requires the state Department of Human Services to create a former foster care youth steering committee which will be responsible for recommending a long-term implementation plan to support services that will help former foster youth transition successfully to adulthood. The committee will be comprised of stakeholders including former foster care youth. It is important for them to have a voice. Those who have transitioned successfully will have a lot to contribute.

Youth who have exited the foster care system very often do so without a safety net of supportive adults who can help them learn the skills they need to successfully transition into adulthood. They face many challenges as they try to live independently, and sadly many of them experience significant struggles with issues such as housing, education, employment, mental health care and substance abuse. When these youth can be supported as they transition to adulthood, they are more likely to be successful and become contributing members of the community. There is no fiscal impact report yet; however, the bill specifies that funding for these services will come from existing child welfare funds.

The bill has been assigned to House Public Health Care and Human Services with a hearing scheduled for April 10.

EDUCATION

TAX DEDUCTION PI'D

HB 1221 Income Tax Deduction for 529 Acct K-12 Expenses (Rep. Leonard; Sen. Neville) (oppose) was PI'd in House Education Committee on March 26 on a 7-6 vote. The bill was estimated to potentially eliminate up to $15 million from Colorado's tax collections. Supporters labeled it tax policy; the opposition labeled it vouchers for private schools.

Previously reported: LL#4, p. 6.

NO DEDUCTION FOR PRIVATE SCHOOL EXPENSES MOVES FORWARD

HB 1209 No 529 Account Income Tax Deduction for K-12 Expenses (Reps. Pettersen & Garnett; none) (support) passed House Education on a 7-6 vote on March 26 and will be heard on the House floor on Monday, April 2. Arguments in favor of HB 1209 include: aligning tax policy with the state constitution, which prohibits tax funds from going to sectarian schools; only funding schools over which there is public oversight; refraining from diminishing Colorado’s already meagre resources for public schools; and not encouraging any further the re-segregation of our schools.

INSTATE TUITION BILL FOR REFUGEES AND SPECIAL IMMIGRANTS NEARS FINISH LINE

SB 87 In-State Tuition Foreign National Settled in Colorado (Sen. Fenberg; Reps. Michaelson & Winter) (Support) This bill allows refugees or special immigrants admitted to the United States under certain federal laws and who have settled in Colorado to be eligible for instate tuition, thus waiving the one year waiting period for residency. This would include refugees, emergency refugees and those admitted on Special Immigrant Visas (SIV). Those who were employed by the U.S. Government or Armed Forces in Iraq or Afghanistan are often given Special Immigrant Visas. Only 50 per year are issued.

The bill was heard in the House Education Committee on March 21. Many of the same witnesses testified on behalf of the bill as did in the Senate State, Military and Veteran Affairs Committee. There was a proposed amendment to exclude refugees from the instate tuition waiver because they did not serve in an official capacity with the U. S. Government. However, many argued the refugees were members of a family or of communities who supported the United States and have been persecuted or their lives were put at risk. The proposed amendment failed. The unamended bill passed the House Education Committee by a vote of 8-5 and was referred to the Committee of the Whole.

The bill passed Second Reading in the House on March 26 with no amendments and was laid over for Third Reading to April 2.
